

INDIANA COUNTY CAMP CADET

Camp Cadet is a summer camp for boys and girls from Pennsylvania between the ages of twelve to fifteen. The camp is held at Camp Seph Mack in Indiana County and the camp is staffed by Troopers and other volunteers. The goal of Camp Cadet is to introduce participants to the diverse criminal justice system and establish an early, positive relationship with law enforcement personnel.

Camp Cadet is open to all youths between the ages of 12 through 15 residing in Indiana County and is structured similar to training at the Pennsylvania State Police Academy. All participants who attend Camp Cadet are addressed “Cadet” during the week. Cadets are required to participate in all scheduled events. The camp focuses on discipline, self-esteem, teamwork, and many issues facing today’s youth.

Camp Cadet is a non-profit organization. Meals, lodging, and programs are provided at no cost to the applicant. Camp Cadet is funded by various fund raisers and business and community donations. As a result, children from all social and economic backgrounds have the opportunity to attend the camp at minimal cost to them or their parents
